

BFW Bundesverband Fernwärmeleitungen

E-Mail: info@bfwev.de
Internet: www.bfwev.de

Marktstraße 52
D-76831 Billigheim

Telephone: +49 (0) 6349 / 92 98 38
Telefax: +49 (0) 6349 / 92 98 39

Companyprofile:

The Association of producers of district heating pipes systems and accessories materials, Bundesverband e.V. Fernwärmeleitungen set itself different tasks and goals.

Among other things, you include the inventory and monitoring of quality and Testing that quality assurance, qualifications, research commissions, and the information of the members.

The BFW has a great experience when it comes to quality in the district. All tests are stored District Heating of BFW audit committee and an auditor of AGFW.

BFW - The Association of producers of district heating pipes systems

The focus of the work of the Federal Association of district heating pipes (BFW) are:

- Training and education for professionals
- Promoting exchanges of information and experience between members
- Advice and assistance to interested persons and institutions
- Encourage and promote scientific and technological innovations

Who is addressed to employees?

- People, companies and associations
- DH plant operators in industry, Commercial, industrial and public facilities
- System and component manufacturers, maintenance companies, craft businesses, installation companies
- Scientific institutes
- Towns and municipalities

What does the BFW its members?

- Qualification and training
- Network for information and experience between the members
- Forum for contacts and cooperation among the members
- Training and testing for sleeve installers to FW 603 and DVS 2212-4 in accordance with the rules AGFW
- reduced registration fees for events

For more details, please refer to our website and if you are interested contact us.